A pre-application meeting with City staff is required prior to submission of any application for a preliminary plat.

*Items will be placed on the Planning Commission's agenda only if all necessary revisions to the material have been completed and submitted by the "Revision Deadline."

All required submittal information must be received prior to being scheduled for public hearing.

This is the earliest date possible for City Council public hearing. The City Council agenda that items will be placed on for public hearing will be determined based on the action of the Planning Commission and the completion of all requirements prior to final approval.

All submittal deadlines and meeting dates are subject to change.
