Introduction

26.2.5 Annual Statistical Summary

The agency compiles annual statistical summaries of complaints and internal affairs investigations, which are made available to the public and agency employees.

Summary

It is the intent of the Papillion Police Department to maintain accountability and transparency. To effectively share information with our citizens, the department compiles data for public release on an annual basis. This report is a statistical summary based on external (i.e., those originating from a citizen) and internal complaints. The nature and specific details of these investigations are confidential in nature and are not for public release.
